

Angelovata - Ангеловата

(Bulgaria)

This is a dance for both men and women from Gorna Lipnitsa, Pavlikeni (North Bulgaria). The dance is performed either with instrumental or vocal accompaniment (see the song enclosed). No particular arrangement is followed (not man, woman, man, etc).

Pronunciation: AhN-geh-loh-vah-tah

Music: From Bulgaria and Beyond CD, Band 4 (instrumental); 7/8 meter (QQS)

Formation: Open circle; hands joined in W-pos, elbows bent.

Steps & Styling: Men dance with a rather characteristic “jumpy” style compared to women and particularly the squats which - depending on the mood - are performed in a variety of ways.

Angelovata—continued

Prochul se Angel Targovets

Prochul se, prochul se, prochul se Angel targovets

Prekupil, prekupil, prekupil Angel gadulki,

Gadulki, gadulki, gadulki, oshte kraleta.

Dano go, dano go, dano go lyubyat momite,

Momite, momite, momite po sedyankite,

I oshte, i oshte, i oshte po belyankite.

Short translation of the lyrics:

This song tell us the story of a merchant named Angel, who wants to buy all different kinds of musical instruments; to become famous, and to win maidens' respect and love.
